Crisis Counselling Centres

2021-02-19

The Kraków Municipality has set up Crisis Counselling Centres to support entrepreneurs with advice provided by experts online or by telephone. The Crisis Counselling Centres also provide information to NGOs, residents and cultural institutions.

As the pandemic continues, the City Hall is planning on expanding the support offered by the Centres in cooperation with local business support institutions and other external actors.