Krakow is Zoover's best tourist destination in Europe for the third consecutive time!

2016-05-19

Krakow received the prestigious "The Best European City Trip 2016" award for the third consecutive time.

The capital of Malopolska Region won Zoover's ranking beating such tourist hits like Vienna, Seville, Prague, Venice, Rome, Barcelona.

- 'The Dutch are in love with Krakow, no doubts about it now' - said Andrzej Pawluszek, Vice director of Tourist Information Centre Overseas who received the award.

Zoover analysed over 200 000 reviews of Europe's most popular cities. The website's users commented on the local ambience, culture, night life and the quality of local hotels. Krakow scored 8.90. Vienna came second with the total score of 8.8 and Seville scored a high 8.78.

Zoover is one of Europe's major travel websites, providing original reviews of tourist destinations, venues and attractions. The website is a free of charge, independent platform for travelers from around the globe.
