Jagiellonian University - the only university from Central and Eastern Europe in prestigious Reuters ranking

2017-06-07

Thomson Reuters Press Agency published the ranking of Europe's Most Innovative Universities 2017. Krakow's Jagiellonian University is the only higher education institution from Poland but also the only one from Eastern Europe listed among Europe's best.

The most innovative university in Europe, for the second year running, is Belgium's KU Leuven from Krakow's twin City.
