Competition: Design Two New Murals for Kraków

2026-05-13

Original creative vision, relevance to the competition theme, harmony with the surrounding environment, as well as social, artistic, and aesthetic value are among the key criteria to be assessed in two international competitions for new murals in Kraków. Kraków invites in public space artists to join the initiative. Project submissions are open until May 27.

The first mural, connected to the celebrations of the Year of Andrzej Wajda in Kraków, is planned to appear on the side wall of the building at 50 Kijowska Avenue. The other, themed around Slavic mythology, will
