

Magiczny
Kraków

First Official Visit of the Newly Appointed Consul General of Germany in Kraków

2026-08-11

On 14 July 2026, Stanisław Kracik, Acting Mayor of Kraków, received Marc Eichhorn, the newly appointed Consul General of the Federal Republic of Germany in Kraków, at Kraków City Hall. The meeting provided an opportunity to discuss Kraków's cooperation with German partners to date and prospects for its further development.

"We are delighted to welcome you to Kraków. I am convinced that the positive atmosphere of cooperation between the Consulate General of Germany and Kraków City Hall will foster the implementation of further interesting projects," said Stanisław Kracik.

Relations between Kraków and its German partners have been active and multifaceted for many years. Just one week earlier, an official delegation of the city authorities visited Nuremberg, taking part in celebrations marking the 30th anniversary of the activities of the Kraków House in Nuremberg and the Nuremberg House in Kraków. This year also marks the 35th anniversary of the partnership between Kraków and Frankfurt am Main. Another important anniversary is also approaching – the 50th anniversary of the partnership between Kraków and Nuremberg, which will be celebrated in 2029. Although there are still several years to go before this milestone, preparations for the programme of jubilee events will begin soon.

Economic cooperation also remains an important area of partnership. On 15 July, the third stage of the