Independence Day of Pakistan

2024-08-16

On 14 August Pakistan is celebrating National Holiday. It marks the announcement of Pakistan's independence from Great Britain.

Pakistan emerged in 1947 from a British India but the British Monarch appointed Governor-General to represent his rule, in the next four years, until the Islamic Republic of Pakistan has been officially proclaimed in 1956.

We wish the citizens of Pakistan all the best!
