Christmas market in Kraków among the most attractive in the world

2024-01-03

The flavors and tastes of Christmas are best experienced in the Christmas markets. CNN encourages you to visit the Christmas fair in Kraków, which it describes as one of the most interesting in the world and one of the largest in Europe. Beginning on 24 November, like every year, it will enchant you with its unique atmosphere.

CNN's list of the best Christmas markets also includes: London, Budapest, Helsinki, Singapore, Toronto and New York.

The Christmas fair in the capital of Małopolska was praised, among other things, for its festive atmosphere. The unique architecture of the city, regional traditions and performances by folk groups with live music make the greatest impression on visitors. Stalls of local and foreign merchants and artisans promote Christmas shopping and the discovery of new flavors. Vendors will offer a wide range of products, including hand-painted baubles, Christmas tree decorations, decorative items and Christmas ornaments, ceramics, wooden products, textiles, artistic glassware, jewelry, souvenirs, postcards and calendars. Also merchants from Lithuania, Ukraine, Slovakia and Hungary will be present, selling, among other things, cold cuts, cheese and sausages, bread, jewelry made of fabric and wood, linen and wool craft items, souvenirs, ceramics, etc. Last year, the Christmas fair in Kraków was praised by the British newspaper The Times, which included it among the 24 best Christmas markets in Europe. This year's edition was held from 24 November 2023 to 1 January 2024.
