“BIOLAND” performance

2024-08-16

“BIOLAND” that will be presented on September 2 and 3, 2024 at Łaźnia Nowa Theatre in Kraków is a statement on the climate crisis through the perspective of those who are greatly affected, yet have no voice to speak out. The work is an effort to warp the perceived distinction between the human world and the natural world.

“You do not live outside the scene, but within it, subject to all the same horrors you can see afflicting the lives of animals”
